

EAST OF HERE

Steve Peckford is a multi-instrumentalist and vocalist, who performs a wide range of genres, including Folk, Rock, Blues, Pop and Jazz. His deeply rooted ties to Canada's East Coast have inspired him to tastefully add Celtic elements to his music. He is well versed on the guitar, mandolin, bouzouki and bass. Steve is currently performing with East of Here, Steeped in Tradition and in various ensembles.

Brian Macintyre is no stranger to the Toronto music scene. Brian is a vocalist and guitarist. He has played with many bands and musicians over his 40 year career..his Celtic roots from Cape Breton accounts for his most recent band "East Of Here". He played with Steeped In Tradition for 25 years,as well as many country,rock and pop bands..

Jeff has been playing the Cape Breton fiddle for 29 years and is an energetic fiddler who grew up in Toronto, but has strong roots in the Maritimes. In 1990 he started taking fiddle lessons from master fiddler and music instructor, Sandy MacIntyre, and also attended the Gaelic College in St Ann's, Cape Breton. Jeff has performed in various concerts and dances throughout Cape Breton and Nova Scotia during his career. He also appeared in the theatrical production The Needfire at the Princess of Wales Theatre in Toronto. Some of his other accomplishments include playing Roy Thompson Hall, Royal Alexandra Theater, The Governor General Awards in Ottawa, several TV shows on CBC, HGTV and Breakfast Television. He has also made numerous appearances throughout Canada and the United States

Damien Walsh is an accomplished vocalist,guitar and bassist...he is no stranger to the Toronto music scene.Currently playing in a Celtic band"East of Here". Damien has performed on stage with Steeped in Tradition for 25 years, also sharing the stage with countless country, rock and pop bands, including singing the Nation Anthem at Toronto's major Stadiums.

Atilla Turi is a very well know percussionist in the GTA and surrounding area. He has toured and performed with many well know bands such as the Kings, from 1990 to the present. He has recorded with many bands. as well as engineers from his recording studio in Burlington.

Charlotte, Maria, Mika, and Ailsa are the members of the Canadian stepdancing group, UnReel. They are the 2018 Ontario Open Group champions and have also won numerous fiddle and stepdance awards as individuals. Since coming together as a group two years ago, UnReel has performed across Ontario, and as guests with artists including Natalie MacMaster and The Next Generation Leahy. They love dancing together and sharing their joy for Celtic music.

